

THE GENERAL DIRECTORATE OF CIVIL DEFENSE
LABORATORIES AND HAZARDOUS MATERIALS DEPARTMENT

QUALITY POLICY

The quality policy in the laboratories and hazardous materials department is a control for the self prevention and protection equipment by Applying lab. tests on it depending on international standards (ISO,BS) and local standards (JS).

The department improves its policy by applying a management system depending on ISO9001 and ISO IEC 17025:2005 requirements which is for testing and calibration labs. , and also obey the accreditation unit instructions.

The department approve that its employees have an excellent knowledge in the quality system, and it recognizes their important duties as a partners in the system growth, development, and protection.

The department understands the importance of the quality policy periodic review, and the continuous development on it, and also it committees by employing trained and qualified employees in technical and management fields on the modern technical practices.

The department committees in integrity and indifferent to insure that the required jobs are done perfectly with the customers' requirements, benefits and needs in all times.

Approved
Lieutenant General
General Director of civil defense
Talal Abd Allah Al-Koufahy